Any resemblance between the characters taking part and those of the original production is a consummation devoutly to be wished, but in our private opinion they were inimitable.

The Company apologise for the absence of scenery which is accounted for by the fact that it is (as far as we know) still lying in the warehouses of Stage Scenery Ltd.

The audience is therefore requested to use its imagination. If your friend hasn't got any, please explain, but sotto voce or you won't hear the scene shifters.
